

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD CLOCKERS

—Painting by Robert Hunt

The Clockers were regular passenger trains between Philadelphia and New York City. They were called Clockers because departures from Broad Street Station—later from 30th Street—Philadelphia, and from Penn Station, New York, were every hour on the hour from 6:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. through the 1950s and a less-regular schedule continued through Amtrak. Consisting mostly of P70 air conditioned coaches, there was a Pullman parlor car and conventional heavyweight dining car between the coaches and parlors on trains during meal hours. The Coach Yard will offer 6-car Cloccker sets for the 1941-1948, and 1952-1968 eras, as well as number of individual cars, FACTORY pro-finished: lettered and painted per prototype in HO scale.
