

COAST MAIL TRAINS 71 & 72

At one time the Pearl Grey Daylight, train Nos. 71 and 72 were, after November 1946, reduced to a single 60-foot rider coach and head end cars, to become the Coast Roast mail train. The schedule was leisurely, departing San Francisco and Los Angeles just after midnight with 4:30 p.m. arrivals at their respective terminals the next afternoon. Nicknamed “Sad Sam” by the crews, Nos. 71 and 72 were renumbered 90 and 91 in 1955, and later Nos. 151-154, but continued to wend their way up and down the Coast until May 19, 1965 when discontinued. The Coach Yard will offer an 8-car Coast Mail in HO scale, FACTORY pro-finished: lettered and painted with interiors as per prototype. A number of individual cars will also be available in a variety of paint schemes. See your friendly Coach Yard dealer and make your reservations now!
